

Winscon's Word

Reminder: The upcoming national holiday will be the 25th year our great leader Winscon Farali has been in the position of Pamagmus. The required letters of appreciation will be collected the last Friday of this month by council workers. Letters must be sent by every citizen over the age of fifteen.

NEW JOBS CREATED

Our great leader, Winscon Farali has had another visionary idea to grow our economy and increase both the churches and state's power and wealth. From now on unmarried young women will be asked to work in the candle factories.

will have access to food and meals designed to make their body as healthy as possible. This to ensure that when they get married they are ready to start their real lives as a wife and mom as quickly as possible.

TRAMLINE 72-Opening

Public transport will be expanded with a new tramrail connecting the Eastern mountainside with Mac Razar.

For ages, unmarried women have been nothing but a great inconvenience and cost to the state. Since they are too weak to do the real work in our petroleum refineries and lack the intelligence for other work a new job has been created for them. From now on they will work in special factories on handmade luxurious candles. This means they will be creating intricate candles by using ancient dipping techniques. For this work they will be awarded with a place to stay in the women's quarters and they

To create easier transport to the refineries the cabinet of the Pamagmus has created a new tramline. The official opening of the route will be may 19th, all men of both connecting cities are invited for a reception after the blessing of the rails and the usual religious ceremony. The work on the new tracks is almost completed and test-drives will be taking place shortly. The tramrail will connect the Eastern Mountains of Dimbrav with the capital, Mac Razar. The tram will ride hourly, between the hours of 6am and 8pm.

CABINET OF THE PAMAGMUS

Lawrence Cooper, the 14th member of the cabinet will retire a month after our national holiday. His son, Bradley will be taking his position. A trial period of three months will take place where Bradley will be supported by his father to ensure a smooth transition.

Week 13, March 25th